

Terms of Use - Live! by BULA

Last updated: 19 May 2025

By using the “Live! by BULA” application, you agree to the following:

1. Free to Use, But Not for Sale

You’re welcome to use the app for free. Just don’t sell it or package it as part of something you’re charging for.

2. No Modifications Without a Chat

If you’d like to modify the application, no worries, but please reach out to us first. We just ask that you get written permission from BULA Ltd before making any changes.

3. Keep the Footer

The text “Live! by BULA” in the footer must always stay visible and must always link to www.beachultimate.org. This helps spread the word and gives credit where it’s due.

4. Give It a Shout-Out

If your organization usually makes announcements, we kindly ask that you:

- Post on each of your social media channels that you’re using the app.
- Issue a press release (if that’s something your org normally does).

5. Spirit Still Applies

We believe in the Spirit of the Game. If something comes up that isn’t covered here, let’s discuss it in good faith and work it out together. Contact: live@beachultimate.org
